

The San Diego Tonkawas group really knows how to have a good time while keeping the Kumeyaay and Native culture alive. The community came out in force to enjoy a beautiful San Diego Saturday at Mission Bay. Family and friends socialized and enjoyed the beautiful San Diego Saturday Oct. 4th. The kids recalled antiquity playing a rough and tumble game of stickball. The watermelon eating contest, food and fun was enjoyed by all.

Teach-in at UCSD Explores Native American Repatriation Act

The Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (NAGPRA) was scrutinized by different points of view to the Grave Injustice: UCSD Repatriation Teach-In Oct. 13 in the Student Services Center at the University of California, San Diego.

NAGPRA is a federal law passed in 1990 defining a "process for museums and Federal agencies to return certain Native American cultural items and human remains to the tribe of origin.

The event, part of U C San Diego's Native American Day Celebration, was sometimes heated when the issue of museum inventory accountability was raised.
