PAX HARVEY Keynote Speaker

A proud Dine' raised in Lukachukai, Ariz., who grew up in a hostile environment with Domestic Violence, Drugs, Alcohol, Abuse, and Neglect was rampant. Pax grew up not knowing his biological father. He attended a B.I.A. Boarding School where he was bullied. Pax even attempted suicide thinking that would be a solution. Presently, after dropping out of college several times, Pax received his AA Degree from Dine' College and his BA degree in business from Northern Arizona University and became a full-time consultant. In addition, Pax has become well-known entrepreneur. His public presence branched off into becoming a keynote speaker, motivational speaker, and a facilitator on various topics. Pax's passion today is to help others heal, find peace, happiness, and balance so they become a productive member of society. He is also a fluent speaker in Navajo.
