

The Office of Outreach & Recruitment at CSUSB is proud to bring to you, the First Peoples Coyotes Rising 2.0 virtual program (Zoom links will be sent out the week of the program after registration). We recognize students may be struggling during these trying times around Covid-19. The purpose of this program is to help provide a much-needed sense of community for college-level students feeling isolated in the virtual format. This programs theme is centered on Fostering Compassion & Resiliency towards the new academic year!

We welcome you to register and attend our program. Only one registration is needed to attend both days of the program. We ask that you register based on the following:

- Current CSUSB students only RSVP Here
- All other community members & students RSVP HERE

Program Coordinator: Roger Griffin, M.S. (He, Him, His)

Position Title: Native American Outreach Coordinator

Office of Outreach and Student Recruitment

California State University, San Bernardino

Main Office (909) 537-5188

Ext. 74491

Cell. (909) 537.4491

roger.griffin@csusb.edu

www.csusb.edu/admissions

September 17th, 2020

Program Theme: Fostering Compassion & Resiliency

Time/Day	Workshop/Activity	Speaker
September 17, 2020	Program Welcome	Roger & Melissa
	Opening Ceremony	TBD
	Land Acknowledgement	TBD
	12:30-1:10 PM Blessing/Prayer	TBD
	Program Statement	TBD
1:10-3:10 PM	San Manuel Grant Acknowledgement	TBD
	Cultural Performing Arts and Song This workshop will highlight the power of music in song by helping students define and build their cultural identity using creativity, song writing, vocal art, cultural inspiration e.g.; rattle or drum, creativity, song writing, and collaboration.	Natalie Contreras (Yaqui) Sara Sanchez (Yaqui)
3:15--5:15 PM	Storytelling for Success: Achieve during a Pandemic Back-to-School presentation on Vision, Goals and Action for the Online Virtual Fall semester 2020 *Building the CSUSB student virtual campus support.	Brian Frejo (Pawnee/Seminole Nation of Oklahoma) Brian Frejo Website and Biography
5:30-7:30	“Chemi’sh Supil” (We are one) Talking circle which is a traditional way for Native Americans to solve problems or do away with negativity.	Sara Sanchez (Yaqui)

September 18th, 2020

Program Theme: Fostering Compassion & Resiliency

Time/Day	Workshop/Activity	Speaker
12:30-1:10 PM	Day 2 Opening Discussion	TBD
1:15-1:30	Introduction with James Ramos	University Advancement
	Words of Encouragement	Assemblymember James Ramos (Serrano/Cahuilla) Honorable James Ramos
	Program Break
2:00-4:00 PM	Two Separate Workshops (choose one) American Indians in Pro Sports “Historically, American Indian in pro sports is not taught in educational institutions that has remained dormant from history and sports chronicles. The discussion presents a view of American Indian athletes from different tribes throughout history that contributed in pro athletics such as football, baseball and the Olympics (1897 to 2020).”	Karras Wilson: (Quechan/Cocopah) Karras Wilson Biography Director of Native Students University of Southern California
	Native Cultural Leadership & Civility Workshop A discussion on cultural awareness, sensitivity, collaboration and identity.	Sara Sanchez (Yaqui) Dr. Jonny Vega The Honorable Thomas Torte Jr., Chairman Torres Martinez
4:20-6:20	Back-to-School Student Talking Circle for the Online Virtual Fall semester 2020 *Building student virtual campus support	Brian Frejo (Pawnee/Seminole Nation of Oklahoma)
6:30-8:30	Regalia Heartbeat of Culture Join Sara Sanchez and Natalie Contreras as they invite you in for discussion on Native American regalia and its importance for cultural traditions and ceremonies. Closing	Sara Sanchez (Yaqui) Natalie Contreras (Yaqui)