Join us for the 2012 For All My Relations: A Conference for Indian Families from August 2-4, 2012 at the Hilton Los Angeles/Universal City Hotel in Universal City, CA.

Conference Information

This year we are celebrating the 12th anniversary of the For All My Relations Conference for Indian Families. Please join us as we gather to share new information and resources offered to help Native communities strengthen Indian families. This conference provides a variety of workshops for tribal adults and youth as well as workshops for those who serve tribal communities.

The goal of this conference is to create strong foundations for Native American families and tribal governments. Collectively, we must be ready and willing to face the challenges that can result in a stronger future for Indian country. The cultural, social and political integrity of tribal communities will become healthy and stable if we commit collectively to care for and support Native families. It is our duty to increase our knowledge and awareness about issues that threaten the health, safety and welfare of Native families.

It is for all our relations that we come together to share our knowledge, skills, and dreams for the future of Indian families.
