

You are cordially invited to a special luncheon with
Winona LaDuke

You are cordially invited to a special luncheon with Winona LaDuke (Anishinaabe) an internationally renowned activist working on issues of sustainable development, renewable energy and food systems on November 18, 2009. Winona LaDuke will be speaking Wednesday evening at CSU San Marcos and would like to meet with the local tribal community while she is here. The Pauma Band of Luiseño Indians has generously agreed to host this lunch along with the Tierra Miguel Foundation.

What: Luncheon for Tribal leaders and Tribal community members with Winona LaDuke.

When: Wednesday, November 18 at 12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

Where: Pauma Band of Luiseño Indians Tribal Hall
1010 Reservation Road
Pauma Valley, CA 92061

Limited space is available for this event, Please RSVP to the below, by Monday, November 16, 2009 to Joely Proudfit at jproudfi@csusm.edu or 951-816-3301