Native Roots: Past, Present, and Future

36th Annual California Conference on American Indian Education

March 17-19, 2013

Fess Parker's Doubletree Resort by Hilton • Santa Barbara, CA

Native Roots: Past, Present, and Future

We invite you to attend the 36th Annual California Conference on American Indian Education, March 17-19, 2013, at the Fess Parker’s Doubletree Resort in Santa Barbara, CA. The conference theme is “Native Roots: Past, Present, and Future.” The conference will showcase 36 years of success and growth of American Indian education in California and the impact the American Indian Education Centers have had in American Indian communities.

This conference is made possible by the collaborative efforts of the 27 American Indian Education Centers located statewide, endorsed by the California Department of Education, and many other supporters of American Indian education throughout California. Our hope is that your attendance at this year’s conference will be a positive experience and will result in lasting memories. We look forward to seeing you in Santa Barbara. If you have any questions or would like clarification, please contact Irma Amaro at 707-464-3512 or by e-mail at irma@ncidc.org, or Rachel McBride at 530-895-4212 ext. 110 or by e-mail at rachel.4winds@sbcglobal.net.

Respectfully,

Irma Amaro and Rachel McBride

Conference Overview

Purpose of the Conference

The 36th Annual California Conference on American Indian Education “Native Roots: Past, Present, and Future,” offers the opportunity to share traditional and academic teaching and learning. This conference honors the commitment of the family and all those who have contributed to the advancement of Indian Education in California.

Conference Goals

- To advocate academic excellence and educational opportunities for American Indian families, educators, tribal leaders, and board members;
- To provide opportunities for networking among American Indian families, elders, tribal leaders, students, and educators;
- To recognize achievements of distinguished educators parents, and students;
- To honor our elders, who are our most revered teachers.

Youth Track

We are pleased to announce that this year's conference will again offer a youth track. Great speakers are scheduled as well as interactive activities, including a trip to the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Greg Masten

Greg Masten is a member of the Yurok Tribe and descendant of the Hoopa and Karuk Tribes. Over the years, Mr. Masten has been a strong advocate for Tribal Sovereignty and the empowerment of tribal people and nations. Mr. Masten views education as a function of this empowerment and believes that tribes must include education in their definitions of sovereignty.

Mr. Masten has spoken or presented on education issues at many forums including a congressional briefing, Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, National Indian Education Association conferences, the Annual California Conference on American Indian Education, the National Congress of American Indians, Tribal Education Department's National Assembly, U.S. Department of Education, National Education Association, American Indian Education Oversight Committee, and to various tribes, colleges, and graduation ceremonies.

Mr. Masten is currently the Director of Development for Northwest Indian College. His former positions include: Education Director for the Hoopa Valley Tribe, wherein he was responsible for 17 education programs; Director of the Center for Hupa Language, Culture and Education; Site Manager of the Early College of the Redwoods; and Vice President of Marketing of the Hyperbaric Corporation.

Mr. Masten has served as the Vice President and President (first from California) of the Tribal Education Department's National Assembly (TEDNA). This position enabled him to be on the cutting edge of legislation and education policy, and work with tribes across the country.

He has also been a board member of the University of Indigenous Nations; Humboldt State University's American Indian Advisory Board; Indian Policies and Procedures Task Force; Humboldt/Del Norte P-16 Council; California Indian Education Directors Association; and has served on numerous language, curriculum, parenting, and strategic planning committees.

Mr. Masten has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Native American Studies with a minor in American Indian Education and a Master's Degree in Education with a special emphasis on American Indian education from Humboldt State University.

Cynthia Gomez

Cynthia Gomez is a member of the Yokut tribe from the Tule River Indian Reservation. She was appointed by Governor Brown as his first Tribal Advisor in March 2012. She was also appointed by Governor Brown as the Executive Secretary for the Native American Commission.

Judge Gomez has over 30 years of experience working with Tribal, State, and Federal governments. Prior to working for the Governor, she served the Chief Judge for the Shingle Springs Tribal Court. In 2010 Judge Gomez was appointed to the California Tribal Court/State Court Coalition by the California Supreme Court Justice, Ronald M. George. The purpose of the coalition is to develop measures to improve the working relationship between California's tribal and state courts and to focus on areas of mutual concern. She began her career working for the Tule River Tribal Council overseeing various departments with oversight of planning, natural resources, public works, water, environmental, cultural resources, and transportation. Her duties included the development of legislation and the prosecution of Tribal laws through the Federal Magistrate's Court. She served as the Assistant Secretary for Environmental Justice and Tribal Government Affairs for the Office of the Secretary at the California Environmental Protection Agency; and the Chief for the Native American Liaison Branch. She also served as the Chairperson for the National Transportation Research Board's standing Committee on Native American Transportation Issues which is one of the six major divisions of the National Research Council jointly administered by the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering, and the Institute of Medicine.

Judge Gomez has a Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Northern California where she received honors as Valedictorian, Outstanding Litigator, and Dean of Students.

Call for Student Writing & Photography

The 36th Annual California Conference on American Indian Education is approaching quickly and, once again, we wish to showcase the writings of American Indian students from our state in a small booklet (chapbook) available to each participant who attends the conference. We are requesting poetry, short stories, and photography from all K-12 American Indian youth who reside in California. If possible, we would prefer black and white photographs but will accept color.

All submissions should address the conference theme "Native Roots: Past, Present, and Future." Photographs and writings that demonstrate the power of intergenerational education, whether formal or cultural, are especially welcome.

Please inform your youth about their opportunity to have their work published and encourage them to submit their writings to:

American Indian Education Program
1919 B Street, Marysville, CA 95901
Phone: 530-749-6196 • Fax: 530-741-7840

Copyright will remain with the authors. Works submitted for publication will not be returned, therefore, please send copies only. Each youth who is published will receive two free chapbooks from the Conference Planning Committee. All works should be submitted for review by Friday, February 15, 2013. Along with each submission, please include the following information:

Student Name • Tribal Affiliation
Age of Student • Phone Number
Name and address of sponsoring organization
(i.e., Title VII, IEC, or school)

We are looking forward to publishing the writings and photographs of our American Indian youth. If you have any questions, please contact Pat Bennett at 530-749-6196.

Thank you, The 36th Annual California Conference on American Indian Education Committee

The Indian Arts and Craft Act of 1990 shall apply to all arts and crafts vendors.

The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-644) is a truth-in-advertising law that prohibits misrepresentation in marketing of Indian arts and crafts products within the United States. It is illegal to offer or display for sale, or sell any art or craft product in a manner that falsely suggests it is Indian produced, an Indian product, or the product of a particular Indian or Indian Tribe or Indian arts and crafts organization, resident within the United States. Under the Act, an Indian is defined as a member of any federally or State recognized Indian Tribe, or an individual certified as an Indian artisan by an Indian Tribe.
